 Plaintiff

v.

DuBai International financial centre d/b/a DIFC ;
 DuBai International financial Exchange d/b/a DIFX ;
 Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange ; Bureau of Prisons, Defendants

HABEAS CORPUS RELIEF UNDER 28 USC 2241

The manner in which my sentence was executed is unconstitutional. Defendants invest in BOP's prisons in Nebraska and South Carolina. They are cost cutting to save money for their investors, we are receiving less Nebraska corn on our food menu. We used to have a salad bar, now we get less food, I'm subjected to used clothes. I get 1 bar of soap once a month, even though I'm indigent, I'm denied phone calls to my family. I'm denied lower custody, I'm in a medium facility, this is unconstitutional. Defendants allow Radical Islam in prison every Friday during Tumah at 12 pm, this puts me in danger because I'm Jewish, I seek a proper diet, better conditions. I seek counsel, my 6th amendment rights are violated under Boker and Pan Pan. I pray for relief.
